OREGON SERIES

*All Myrtlewood for High Energy Sound
Breedlove's Most Popular USA Crafted Guitars*

With its hypnotic, variegated color patterns and unique sonic clarity, melding the best aspects of rosewood, mahogany and maple, myrtlewood would qualify as one of the great exotic tonewoods, but it's native! It grows—gnarled, strong and beautiful—on Oregon's rainy, windswept Pacific coast, just 90 miles from Bend. Breedlove, in fact, led the charge in using myrtle for fine guitars, and that proud lineage continues with the best-selling Oregon series. Denser than Sitka spruce, myrtlewood—as a result of Sound Optimization®—can be planed and sanded even thinner, releasing more energy for a balanced profile alive with bass, midrange and treble in equal measure.

Now available in three revolutionary Breedlove body styles with contemporary soft cutaways, each Oregon Series guitar is equipped with LR Baggs EAS VTC electronics and comes with a deluxe Breedlove hardshell case.

OREGON SERIES

Marrying Sitka Spruce with Myrtlewood. Surpassing the Sound, Tonal Balance and Richness of Traditional Tonewoods

While Oregon myrtlewood may be denser than Sitka spruce, it pairs with it to create guitars that fly past all others, surpassing the sound, tonal balance and richness of more traditional tonewood combinations. Our Sitka, from rugged stock, straight and true, is sustainably sourced. We never harvest these magnificent trees but work with Alaska Specialty Woods to salvage blown down trunks, often nearly 600 years old, from the forest floor, contributing to the health of the biosphere while putting a supreme instrument in your hands. Individually crafted in Bend, with all native tonewoods and the remarkable benefits of Sound Optimization®, each Oregon Concert soft cutaway spruce/myrtle model, available in Natural or Whiskey Burst finish, is performance ready, with LR Baggs EAS VTC electronics and a deluxe Breedlove hardshell case.

THE MYRTLEWOOD STORY

Fully sustainable and clear-cut free tonal balance and clarity from the Oregon Coast.

Popularized by Breedlove, myrtlewood, from the windblown Oregon coast, combines the best elements of rosewood, mahogany and maple—rich bass, warm midrange and clear, bright trebles—for truly versatile guitars. Each sonically distinct instrument is individualized by the gnarled, wildly varied, but always arresting grain patterns.

"We can make our instruments with salvaged or selectively harvested wood from sustainable forests," Jeff Bridges says, "while still protecting habitat and sustaining the local community. We can make a difference."

JEFF BRIDGES' SIGNATURE MODELS

With his exquisite new Oregon Concerto Bourbon CE, Academy Award®-winning actor, musician and environmentalist Jeff Bridges takes a stand for unity, ecology and peace. Bridges designed his Oregon model, along with two new, similarly clear-cut free, sustainable Organic Collection instruments—all feature his "All in this Together" motto emblazoned on the fretboard and his name inlaid on the headstock.

The Breedlove Organic Artista Series takes luxury to a new level, with gold frets and tuners, brass inlays, Natural Sound electronics and an African ebony fingerboard capping a Hard Rock maple neck. The latter, denser than mahogany, couples with Breedlove's favorite tone platform, Oregon myrtlewood, to create an instrument as sonically powerful as it is visually beautiful—with a thin Natural Shadow Burst finish and dark walnut binding setting off each uniquely varied and colorful back and side. Torrefied European spruce tops with African ebony bridges work with myrtle's magic fusion of rosewood thump, mahogany warmth and maple brilliance to deliver a balanced, high energy, ultra-responsive playing experience.
